SAGE Dining Services® Expands into Ontario with Crescent School

LUTHERVILLE, Md. – SAGE Dining Services®, a leading provider of premier dining services for independent schools and private colleges, is pleased to announce its expansion into Ontario through its partnership with Crescent School, a leading independent boys' school in Toronto. SAGE has been serving schools in British Columbia since 2013.

As the new food services provider for Crescent School, SAGE will collaborate closely with the school's administration, faculty, and students to create a dynamic dining program that reflects the school's core values and supports the holistic development of its young men. With the shared belief that mealtimes are opportunities to bring campus communities together, SAGE is the perfect partner to execute Crescent School's vision for inclusivity and community building through food.

"We're thrilled to embark on this new chapter and partner with Crescent School, an institution that shares our commitment to excellence and innovation," said Marcel Gallo, Chief Operating Officer at SAGE Dining Services®. "By combining SAGE's culinary expertise with Crescent School's rich history, we're confident that together we'll create a dining program that fuels the body and mind while providing a vibrant dining experience each day."

"Crescent School is thrilled to announce our new partnership with SAGE dining services," Headmaster Michael Fellin said. "We know how important nutritional well-being is for student engagement and performance as we strive to build men of character from boys of promise. We are excited to bring the SAGE difference to our school community. SAGE's dedication to quality, service, and innovation ensures that they will meet our needs today and in the future."

SAGE Dining Services® and Crescent School's partnership exemplifies a shared vision to deliver excellence in education and student well-being. This alliance ensures that Crescent School students will benefit from a dining experience that complements their academic journey, promoting healthy choices, fostering community, and inspiring personal growth.
